Richard Viguerie Announces Launch of the “TANK TILLIS” Project.

Manassas, VA – Richard A. Viguerie, Chairman of FedUp PAC, known as the funding father of the modern-day Conservative Movement, and author of Go Right – Go Big announced today a bold new initiative to recruit and support a challenger to incumbent Senator Thom Tillis in North Carolina’s 2026 Republican primary election.

“Thom Tillis personally tanked Ed Martin, President Trump’s handpicked nominee for US Attorney for the District of Columbia and now conservatives are going to tank him. Conservatives are frustrated by Tillis’s repeated betrayals on border security, spending, and judicial appointments, and we say it’s time for a Senator from North Carolina who puts America First.

North Carolina and the American people deserve a true conservative in the U.S. Senate who supports President Trump’s agenda—not a go-along, get-along career politician who continues to betray the President and conservatives,” said Viguerie.

The initiative will focus on candidate recruitment, voter education, and engagement.

“The message is clear: Thom Tillis no longer represents conservative North Carolinians and the American people who want to make America great again” concluded Viguerie.

This bold initiative should be a warning to other “RINO” Republicans who choose to side with Democrats in Congress to “TANK” President Trump’s agenda and betray the values and policies supported by conservatives.
